

Ahead Together presents: Families after Brain Injury - the Untold Stories

11 May 2023 | Weston Library, Oxford; virtual via livestream

Time	Speaker(s) and topic
9.00 - 9.30	Registration and conference opens
9.30 - 9.45	Welcome: Tracy Norris-Evans, Head of Injury, RWK Goodman
9.45 - 10.00	Ahead Together: introducing Untold Stories Dr Audrey Daisley, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist
10.00 - 11.00	Keynote presentation Damian Barr, writer, broadcaster and Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts
11.00 - 11.20	The untold, and often ugly, story of living with brain injury: a family member's perspective Dr Alyson Norman, Associate Professor of Psychology, University of Plymouth
11.20 - 11.50	Coffee break
11.50 - 12.10	A mother's untold story of adolescence, assault and resolve Lisa Burnyeat, in interview with Tracy Norris-Evans
12.10 - 12.30	A story that might never have been told: Tree of Life in family work in brain injury Dr Ndidi Boakye, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist, The Psych Practice
12.30 - 12.50	Chairs' comments / reflections Dr Mark Holloway, Senior Brain Injury Case Manager Nicola Hughes, family member
12.50 - 14.00	Lunch at the Sheldonian Theatre
14.00 - 14.30	The ABI strategy - where do families fit in? Sir Chris Bryant MP, Chair of the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Acquired Brain Injury
14.30 - 14.50	The Other Half - Head On Stephanie Thompson, wife of Rugby World Cup winner and former Lion Steve Thompson, in conversation with Dr Gavin Newby, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist
14.50 - 15.10	"I just want to put the book back on the shelf": the litigation friend's burden Trevor Greenaway, in interview with Ian Carrier, Partner and Head of Oxford Personal Injury team, RWK Goodman
15.10 - 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 - 15.50	Letting go: is it possible? Nicola Cale, Case Manager, CCMS
15.50 - 16.15	Professional narratives about families: owning our blindspots and navigating trapdoors in rehabilitation Dr Gaby Parker, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist
16.15 - 16.40	Final comments / reflections Chairs and panel
16.40 - 16.50	Poster competition winner announcement Dr Charlie Whiffin, Dr Ciara Preston and Nicola Hughes
16.50 - 17.00	Conference closing comments Tracy Norris-Evans, Head of Injury, RWK Goodman & Dr Audrey Daisley, Consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist
17.00 onwards	In person audience: Drinks reception at the Sheldonian Theatre Virtual audience: Reflections session with Dr Rachel Tams